

Wilson Middle School Behavior Rubric—2008-09 (Revised Summer '08)

*Note: Any behavior that is outrageous, overly disrespectful or dangerous, or not specifically stated in the rubric is subject to administrator review and assignment of consequences will result in an immediate office referral.

Please note: All rules apply to buses, bus stops and the cafeteria

If you have a concern that you have not been treated fairly in terms of discipline, please speak to teacher or administrator privately at an appropriate time and place.

We strive to make discipline a private and learning experience and opportunity for growth. All students are asked in conversation with adults (teachers, administrators or guidance staff), to reflect—in writing and in conversation--on behaviors that result in consequences.

Loss of privileges= special events during and after school.

Teacher consequence choice=lunch or after school detention or community service

Lunch detentions remove students from social lunches; students eat with teachers or administrators supervising.

After-school detentions are 40 minutes in length during which students are expected to complete work and speak/reflect with supervising adults relative to behavior.

Respect, Responsibility and Results are Our Core Values!
